LYNCHBURG, VA., August 4.—A home run by Hooker in the fourth and a triple by Wallace in the seventh, followed by a wild pitch, gave Lynchburg two runs and the game, Richmond being unable to get a man around the circuit during the full nine innings. Harry Stewart, who had been out of the game for two weeks with a bad arm, while wild, was an enigma to the visitors in the pinch. In the first eight innings Richmond had a runner left on one of the bases, being unable to deliver the delivery of the pitcher. The Shomakers were unable to get two hits in any one inning. Stinson told in trying for Hooker's drive over his head, or he would probably have been able to stop the runner at third. The game was one of the best played of the season, the honors in the field being even, neither team making a holding error.

Seven Errors Present Portsmouth

Contest.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

ROANOKE, VA., August 4.—The Truckers walked away with Roanoke this afternoon in the second game, the score being 9 to 6. The game was a very pretty one up to the eighth inning, when Roanoke took a trip to the moon, and by a combination of wild pitches, passed balls, hits, errors, etc., the Truckers piled up six runs, much to the disgust of spectators. Morrissey was pitching well, but such support would discourage the best in the world.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

NORFOLK, VA., August 4.—Danville's victory over the Tars to-day was too easy, and after the sixth Stafford's husky bunch slowed up and took things easy when at the bat. Norfolk's only run came in the second on a close decision, in which there was plenty of room for doubt. For a little bit, it looked as if the Bugs would mix it up with Umpire Mace. Riggs, who was offensive, was ordered put out of the ground. His teammates had to hold him to prevent a fistfight with Mace. Ryan, on second, followed by a third man on second and one out. Rynder hit a slow one to Reinhardt. He threw wild to first. Stafford coming up the line to catch the ball, and under a head-first dive, Stafford claimed to have touched the runner. Mace called him safe.

FONTECELLO CLUB SHOOT

The regular weekly shoot of the Fonticello Gun Club was held yesterday afternoon at the trap at Woodland Heights. Mr. Prentiss succeeded in breaking all previous records by making a perfect score out of twenty-five birds shot at, which was especially good, owing to the fact that the trap has recently been improved, throwing faster and at greater angles. Other shooters seemed to be slightly off the two next highest being seventeen, made by Slaughter and Goode, who have tied the last four weeks.
